APPLICATION FOR SHORT TERM DISABILITY BENEFITS

Short Term Disability Benefits

How to apply for short term disability benefits?

1. Ensure you meet the eligibility requirements for this benefit listed below
2. Complete and sign the Member Statement (page 1) of the application for short term disability benefits
3. Ensure your current employer completes the Employer Statement (page 2) or the record of employment (ROE) issued after you stopped working.
4. Ensure the physician overseeing your medical care completes the Attending Physician Statement (page 3)
5. Obtain an ROE from your employer and apply for Employment Insurance (EI) Sick Benefits. If you require assistance in applying for EI benefits, please contact 416-243-6505
6. All three (3) sections of the Application form are required to begin assessing your claim
7. Return the completed application to LiUNAcare Local 183 Member Health Management Services by

Email: memberhealthservices@liunacare183.ca

Mail: 1263 Wilson Avenue, Suite 302 | Toronto, Ontario | M3M 3G3

Fax: 416-240-7047

Questions: 416-240-2104 or 1-866-315-6011

What are the eligibility requirements?

- You must be a member with plan coverage on the date your disability started
- You must be actively at work on the date you become disabled - if you are laid-off, on vacation, unemployed, or not working for any other reason you are not eligible for this benefit

- Employer contributions must have provided your plan coverage on the day you become disabled - if your plan coverage was being maintained through self-payments at the onset of your disability, you are not eligible
- You must be under age 65 at the onset of the disability

- Your disability must be a result of a non-occupational illness or non-occupational injury - If the injury that prevents you from working was caused by work, you must file a claim with the Workplace Safety & Insurance Board (WSIB) - We can assist you with your WSIB application
- If your disability was caused by or contributed by a motor vehicle accident which occurred in the province of Ontario or Quebec, this is excluded, and you are not eligible for this benefit
- There are several other exclusions and limitations – please refer to the benefit plan booklet

- You must be seen by, treated by, and be under the continued care of a licensed physician in Canada
- You must be diagnosed with a bona-fide medical condition which prevents you from working and performing the essential duties of your pre-disability job
- A maximum benefit of $100 is payable to you if you incur a medical fee in having your initial physician statement completed, if the claim is approved

- You must be absent from work for more than 7 days (waiting period) to receive this benefit, unless
 - your disability was a result of a non-occupational accident - then the waiting period does not apply, or
 - you were hospitalized for at least 18 hours - then benefits start on the first day of hospitalization.

Short Term Disability Benefits

How does short term disability work?

- Once we receive your completed application, a Member Health Management Services representative will review your application to determine whether you meet the eligibility requirements for this benefit

- If approved, short term disability benefits are payable at $500 per week, less tax withholdings
- If you signed-up for direct deposit via eClaims, short term disability payment(s) will be automatically deposited into your bank account via electronic fund transfer. An email will be sent to notify you when a benefit payment is made. Through eClaims, you can also access your claim history and explanation of benefits by going to History and selecting Weekly Indemnity. If you have not registered yet, see page 6 for instructions.

- Short term disability benefits are integrated with Employment Insurance (EI) sick benefits - you are required to apply for this benefit
 - During the period EI benefits are payable, short term disability benefits are frozen
 - if you do not qualify for EI, short term disability benefits payments will be issued during this period provided you submit supporting documentation of your ineligibility for EI benefits

- If approved short term disability benefits are payable on the earliest of the following
 - the first day absent from work if the disability is a result of an accident, or
 - the first day of hospitalization, or
 - the end of the waiting period, or
 - after the end of the EI period, if EI starts on the date of disability

- During your disability from work, a Member Health Management Services case manager will work with you and your treatment providers to monitor your progress, ensure access to appropriate medical care, and coordinate plan benefits and services to promote your recovery until you are fit to return to work

- In order to remain eligible for short term disability benefits, you must
 - remain disabled from working and performing the essential duties of your pre-disability job,
 - remain under the continued care of a licensed physician in Canada,
 - be compliant with all aspects of your treatment plan including attending all recommended assessments, investigations, and treatment recommended by your physician and/or your treatment providers,
 - communicate regularly with your Member Health Management Services case manager and comply with any necessary requests required for the ongoing assessment and management of your claim,
 - participate in modified return to work plans when available and suitable, and
 - immediately notify us of your return to work in any capacity, any change in your work status or availability to work, if you intend to travel outside Canada, or if there is any change in your medical status

- Short term disability benefits are payable until you
 - return to full-time work or any work for pay or profit,
 - are deemed fit to return to your pre-disability job,
 - attain age 65, or
 - reach the maximum benefit duration of 104 weeks of disability (inclusive of the EI period)

- If you return to work but sustain a subsequent disability, a new claim must be filed if you return to work
 - four weeks before becoming disabled due to the same or related cause or
 - one week before becoming disabled due to a different and unrelated cause.

Member Health Management Services

How does long term disability work?

- If short term disability benefits ends, you are under age 65, and you remain totally disabled, you may be eligible for long term disability (LTD) benefits offered through the benefit plan. Prior to the end of short term disability benefits, Health Management Services will assist you with your application for LTD benefits.

Our Services

- Your health matters! At LiUNAcare Local 183, we're always looking for new ways to service our members better. Member Health Management Services is your one-stop destination for support on all matters relating to disability, workers' compensation, and other medical benefits and services to get you back to health.
- Our team is comprised of disability management specialist and health professionals trained to ensure members receive medical care focused on recovery and return to work. In addition to helping you access short term and long term disability benefits, and workers' compensation benefits, Member Health Management Services staff work with you in developing a personalized plan and coordinating appropriate plan benefits and services on an expedited basis.
- Refer to the next page for a list of plan benefits and services available to eligible members and dependents.

Maintaining your benefit coverage while on disability

- Should your coverage terminate because you are unable to work due to disability, you have the option to continue your coverage by making self-payments to the members' benefit fund as follows:
 - Members on short term disability will be required to remit a monthly payment of $95 plus 8% RST, a total of $102.60 for continuous benefit coverage up to a maximum of twenty-four (24) months following the exhaustion of your hour bank account provided you remain in receipt of short term disability benefits
 - Members on long term disability will be required to remit a monthly payment of $95 inclusive of 8% RST for continuous benefit coverage provided you remain in receipt of disability benefits on or after October 1, 2011
 - Members on CPP Disability Benefits will have their benefit coverage on a complimentary basis
 - Eligibility for benefits will be conditional on you remaining a Member in Good Standing with Local 183
 - You are required to provide proof that you continue to be in receipt of the above benefits annually
 - Coverage will terminate on the date of your death, return to employment, recovery, or the attainment of age 65 for all benefits
 - The Trustees may adjust the self-payment amount from time to time.
- For more information refer to the benefit plan booklet, visit liunacare183.com, or contact Member Services at 416-240-7487 or info@183membersbenefits.ca

Other Important Information

- Payment of monthly Union dues is your responsibility to remain in good standing.
- Contact the LiUNA! Pension Fund of Central and Eastern Canada for guidance on pension matters at 289-291-3663 or at 1-866-932-1100. Disability Pension Benefits will not affect your entitlement to short term disability benefits.
- Depending on the nature of your condition, speak to your physician about Canada Pension Plan (CPP) disability benefits. CPP disability benefits will not affect your entitlement to short term disability benefits. If you have questions regarding the application process, Member Health Management Services can help.

Plan Benefits & Services

The following benefits and services are available to you to promote recovery and return to health. In order to be eligible you must continue to have plan coverage or maintain plan coverage through self-payments. The eligibility and benefit provisions set out below are general and for information only.

vCare Virtual Healthcare | liunacare183.com

Avoid visits to walk-in clinics and emergency rooms for non-emergency issues with the vCare Virtual Healthcare platform. The vCare platform allows members and dependents to connect instantly with a healthcare provider for primary health concerns via secure text and face-to-face video, 24/7. Virtual follow-ups, prescription refills, specialist referrals, and lab requisitions offered with no travel time, no wait time, and no parking or transportation costs.

QuikCare Expedited Health Care | 1-844-900-8357 (24/7 helpline)

Normal healthcare wait times can be 8 months to see a specialist and 3 months for diagnostic scans. QuikCare provides access to expedited healthcare services when your physician refers you for an MRI, CT scan, ultrasounds, or other specialist consultations including orthopaedic, cardiology, neurology, neurosurgery, gastroenterology, general surgery, ear nose & throat, ophthalmology, urology, and rheumatology.

Health Care Navigation | 1-866-883-5956

Access to Nurses to help you navigate through the healthcare system and providing a single point of contact during your treatment. Services include answering questions regarding tests and treatment options, ensuring access to appropriate treatment, facilitation of diagnostic tests, alternate treatment locations, clinical trials, coordinating doctor-to-doctor consultations, and coaching on how to improve quality of care and management of your condition.

Cancer Assistance | 1-866-599-2720

Access to Oncology Nurses to help cancer patients navigate through the healthcare system by ensuring medical best practices are observed, providing expert assessment of treatment approaches, answering patient questions regarding tests and treatment options, empowering patients to understand their diagnosis, and helping reduce the physical and emotional impact of cancer.

MyConsult Second Opinion | clevelandclinic.ca

Do you have questions regarding your diagnosis? Through the secure web platform, members and dependents can submit their health information, records, and test results to a medical expert who will review and help you make an informed decision about your diagnosis and treatment plan and provide alternatives and second opinions.

Health Coaching | enroll.e-coaching.ca/liuna/183

A confidential one-on-one coaching and support program for those dealing with diabetes, obesity, and cardiovascular issues, including high blood pressure and high cholesterol, who want to focus on weight management and nutrition. Based on an online nutritional assessment, a Registered Dietitian or Certified Diabetes Educator will create a personal nutrition report and meal plan with follow-up coaching sessions to help you achieve your goals.

Self-Help-Works | liunacare.com/selfhelpworks

Make lifestyle goals a reality with this online program that combines principles of cognitive behavioural therapy and health coaching to help you break-through barriers and tackle smoking, weight, diabetes, alcohol consumption, physical activity, restoring sound sleep, and reducing stress.

Virtual Home Delivery Pharmacy | liunacare183.com | 1-833-435-5679

Free full-service pharmacy with medication delivery to your home. Medications are sorted by date and time for ease and convenience. PocketPills works with your prescribing doctor to ensure refills are up to date, with pharmacists actively managing your medical condition and available via chat, text, or phone to answer any of your questions.
